We at Loterías y Apuestas del Estado are writing you officially concerning a prize you won in Spain back in November. You shared the jackpot with a ticket in Spain that remains unclaimed. On Monday 18th October a Lotto jackpot worth over €850,000 in your name will expire and you will lose your chance to claim the prize. The unclaimed lottery jackpot was from a draw back in November last year yet despite several appeals for the winner, notification mail were sent to your address in Swiss no one has come forward. Please note: This is last call for your unclaimed Lotto jackpot.

The unclaimed lottery prize is worth €851,513 and if unclaimed by Monday 18th October the prize will go into the fund for good causes, plus any interest it has accrued since the draw back in November.

To begin your claim please contact an Authorised agent, Administracion de Loteria N°6 de Fuenlabrada, Madrid. Contact person: Mr. Fernandez Ventura on: Phone: 0034 603 14 89 60. We happily congratulate you.

Thank you for taking the time to read.

Very truly yours,

Gonzalo Fernández Rodríguez, Director General
